New Avenues for Youth Appoints New Ambassador Board Members

PORTLAND, OREGON: 08.04.2016 – New Avenues for Youth, a local nonprofit that serves youth at risk of or currently experiencing homelessness, announces the appointment of three individuals to the organization’s Ambassador Board – Liza Dossick, Fnan Gebresus, and Amy Rosenberg.

Liza Dossick is an internal communications specialist at Banfield Pet Hospital’s corporate headquarters in Vancouver, Washington. Prior to joining Banfield, she worked in communications and digital media for the Portland Business Alliance.

Fnan Gebresus is a real estate professional with Greenbridge Properties, a Portland-based real estate company and was formerly with Apartment Management Consultants in Seattle, Washington as part of their property management team.

Amy Rosenberg is president of Veracity, a marketing and PR agency based in Portland and is a former board member of the Portland chapter of Public Relations Society of America, the Portland Marathon Marketing Committee and the St. Mary’s Academy Alumnae Council.

“The skills and passion that each of these professionals bring to our Ambassador Board is invaluable,” says Jessica Elkan, New Avenues for Youth Director of Development. “As staff liason to this dynamic board, I’m excited to work with Liza, Fnan and Amy, and I’m grateful for their commitment to help us prevent and end youth homelessness.”
